

A full-page photograph of a wedding couple standing in the dark doorway of a historic wooden building. The groom is on the left, wearing a grey suit and blue tie, holding the bride's hand. The bride is on the right, wearing a white wedding dress and holding a bouquet of flowers. The building has a prominent cupola on its roof. To the left of the doorway, there is a large vine-covered trellis. The text "Experience your wedding in utopia" is overlaid in a white, elegant script font, with "Experience" and "utopia" being larger and more decorative than "your wedding in".
